PRESIDENT WILLIAM LANGAS

DEDICATION

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON

President Mary Miller was honored on June, 30, 1972, by a Chamber of Commerce Luncheon. The Chamber of Commerce and townspeople had established the Mary Miller Scholarship in her honor. Above, President-Elect William Langas presents this scholarship to President Miller, while Mr. Harold L. Defenbaugh, president of the Chamber of Commerce looks on.

PRESIDENT'S MEETING

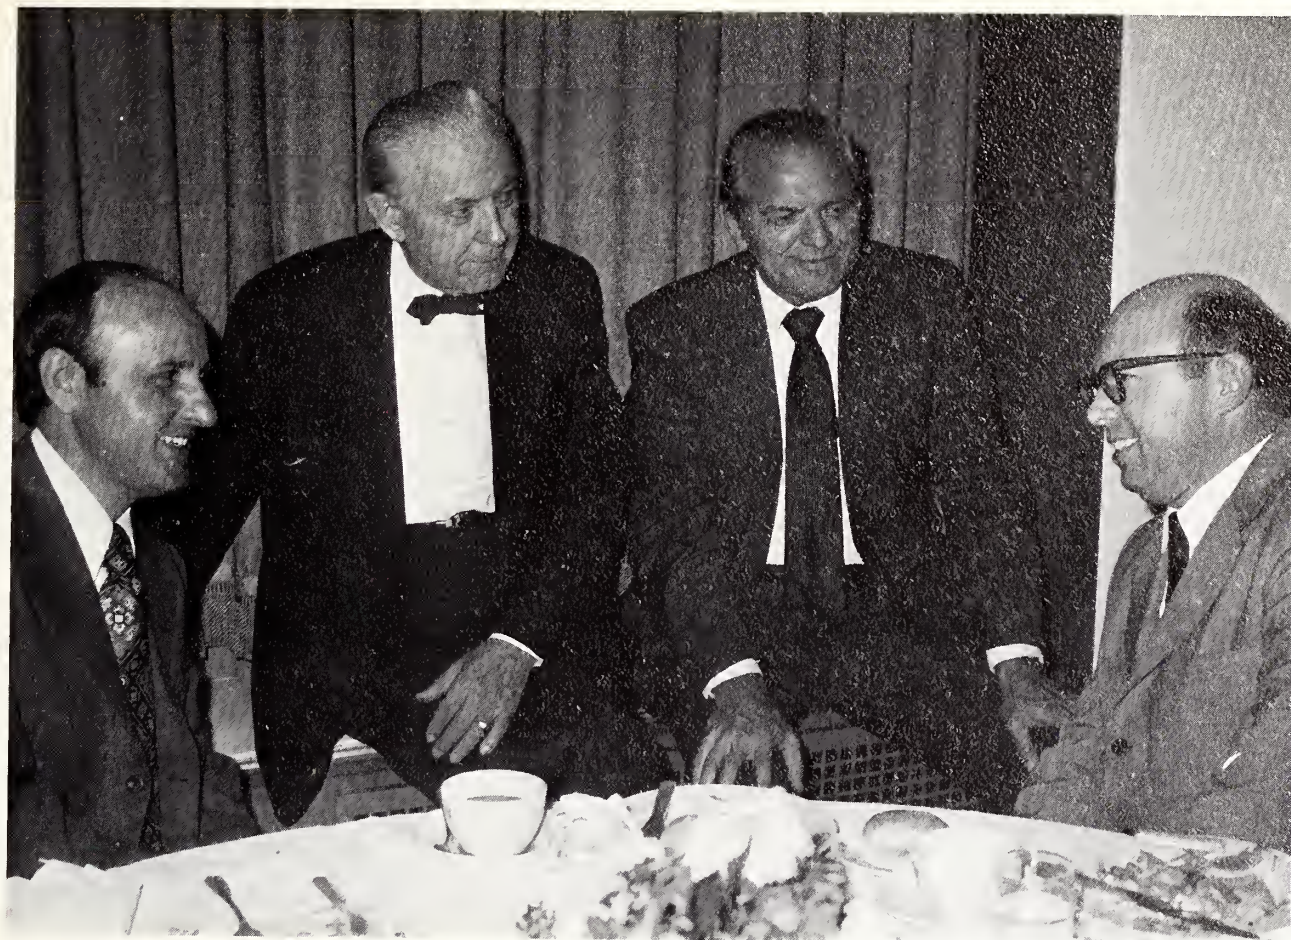

President William Langas is shown above with Mr. Russell Guin, Chairman of the Danville Junior College Board of Trustees, at the President's Session held September 5, 1972. Mr. Langas became the second president of Danville Junior College July 1, 1972. Since 1969 he has served as Director of Faculty and Instruction at D.J.C. He served as Chairman of the Social Science Department from 1966 to 1969. He received his bachelors and his masters degrees at the University of Illinois. He has appeared in Outstanding Educators of America (1970), and is a member of the American Association for Higher Education, American Association of Junior Colleges, Community College Social Science Association, Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, and Phi Theta Kappa.

INTEREST IN STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Since 1966, President William Langas, a former student at Danville Junior College, has had a great interest in student activities and welfare. His interest in foreign students is indicated by the scenes above, in which he congratulates Jaime A. Marzana, Jaime's mother and father (from La Paz, Bolivia) and Jaime's wife, on the occasion of Jaime's receiving his Associate Degree at Danville Junior College, June, 1972. Also above, President Langas is seen attending the Charter meeting of International Club, October, 1972. Below, President Langas attends the Christmas party of the Phi Alphas (as co-sponsor) for the children of the Child Development Center in December, 1970. Also below President Langas officiates at the Phi Theta Kappa initiation, June, 1969.

ILLINOIS JUNIOR COLLEGE BOARD MEETING

On October 20, 1972, President Lugas welcomed to the Danville Junior College campus the Illinois Junior College Board for their business meeting. Above, President Lugas is shown visiting with Mr. Russell Guin, Chairman of the D.J.C. Board of Trustees; Mr. Rey W. Brune, Chairman of the Illinois Junior College Board; and Mr. Fred L. Wellman, Executive Secretary of the Illinois Junior College Board.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER FOR PRESIDENT MARY MILLER

On the evening of April 17, 1972, President Mary Miller was honored at a Testimonial Dinner at the Danville Elks Country Club. Miss Miller, who became President Emeritus September 1, 1972, was honored for 25 years of service in giving Danville a junior college. The first 25 years of Danville Junior College's history under Miss Miller's guidance were recalled in 3 eras—"When We Were Young and Gay" by Miss Mary Ann Diller, Dean of Adult Education; "The Agony and the Ecstasy" by Mrs. Alice Lee Morrison, Dean of Baccalaureate; and "The Miracle of Main Street" by Mr. Robert Griggs, Dean of Vo-Tech. Over 300 people attended; many who were formerly connected with the growth of Danville Junior College came from hundreds of miles away.

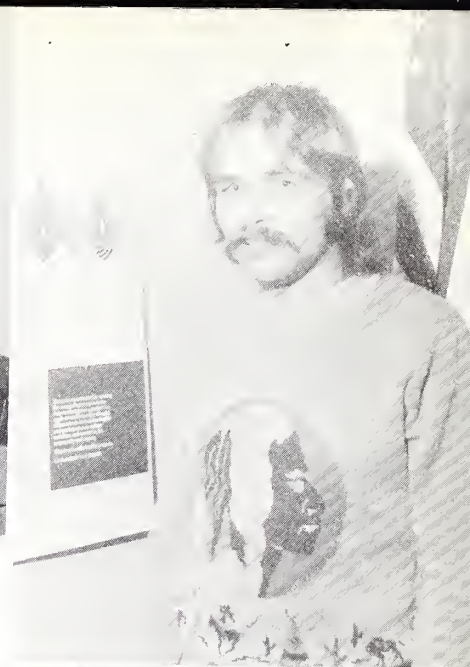

MARY MILLER GYMNASIUM DEDICATION

On May 7, 1972, the new physical education building on Danville Junior College campus was named Mary Miller Gymnasium in ceremonies that honored Miss Mary Miller, retiring President of Danville Junior College. A plaque, a gift from the D.J.C. student body, was presented to Miss Miller. Pictured are Miss Miller; Mr. Robert Wright, master of ceremonies; Mr. Elmer Smith, present member and first President of the Board of Trustees; Mr. Mike McElroy, vice president of D.J.C. Student Senate; Mr. Russell Guin, President of the Board of Trustees; Mr. William Langas, President-Elect of Danville Junior College; and Mr. Richard Cheney, director of Audio-Visual Department at D.J.C.
